ED SKOOG

Hattie's Hat

Some song keeps bringing me
Technical to the marbled kiss
Depicted in light box above the oaken bar
A song I myself deploy
To farewell like a fighter jet
Co-workers left behind
Dimming into semi-appearance,
Singing with a borrowed pen
On this paper napkin in the smell
Of a worked sea. O Ballard,
In the wet throat of your streets
That pistol Time forever holstered,
Like a pin unaccounted for.
